2019 “The Circle” Field Blend

Proprietary Red Field Blend · Texas High Plains AVA

A pioneer of Texas wine since 1997

High-elevation wines, 100% estate grown at 3,305 ft

THE MOST DIVERSE VINEYARD IN TEXAS · 34 GRAPE VARIETIES · TEXAS HIGH PLAINS AVA

A true reflection of the vintage. A proprietary blend of Italian and French varietals from The Circle block with old-world, rustic character: tobacco, cassis and earthiness over black and red fruit, framed by medium, grippy tannin.

TECHNICAL DATA

VINTAGE	2019
WINE	Proprietary blend of Italian and French varietals, The Circle block
APPELLATION	Texas High Plains AVA
VINEYARD	Reddy Vineyards estate, The Circle block, Brownfield, TX
ELEVATION	3,305 ft
SOILS	Sandy loam, clay, limestone
CLIMATE	Semi-arid, extreme day-to-night temperature shifts
WINEMAKING TREATMENT	Aged 16 months in French oak
ALCOHOL	14.5%
PRODUCTION	700 cases
CELLARING	Drink now or cellar 5-7 years
PACK SPEC	750ml / 12-case

TASTING NOTES

APPEARANCE
Ruby-garnet

AROMA
Tobacco, cassis, earthiness, black and red fruit

PALATE
Dry, old-world and rustic, black and red fruit, medium grippy tannin, medium acidity

AT THE TABLE
Steak, hearty pastas and the richer, heavier dishes that call for a bold Cabernet blend.

WHY REDDY

- Est. 1997 family-owned
- 100% estate wines with full traceability
- High-elevation at 3,305 ft driving concentration and freshness
- Sustainable and regenerative farming, minimal additives, low histamine
- “The Top Shelf of Texas Wine — old-world structure, new-world purity”
- Terroir: sandy loam / clay / limestone / ancient seabed
- 750ml / 12-case pack spec